A short look at the dating coaches and matchmakers listed in the United States: where they are based, who they work with, and the prices they publish, from a 17 USD course to 1 million USD.

Updated October 20, 2026

This guide covers the dating coaches and matchmakers based in the United States that this site lists. It uses only facts each business publishes on its own website. We read those facts on 2026-10-20. The businesses have not yet reviewed them, so treat this as a starting point.

The set is small. US listings are based in Los Angeles, New York, Beverly Hills, Las Vegas, Palm Beach Gardens, Minneapolis and Richmond. There are eight. This is a hand-checked set, not every coach or matchmaker in the country. A business that is missing here may still be a good fit for you. Each listing names the page its facts came from and the day we read it. Open that page to see the facts yourself.

Coaches teach skills. A dating coach helps with profile writing, messaging, confidence and feedback after dates. Evan Marc Katz lists a course at 1,797 USD, offered at 800 USD. Dating by Blaine lists self-study courses at 149 USD and 12-week one-to-one coaching at 4,985 USD. Men of Action lists a 17 USD course and mentoring from 1,200 USD.

Matchmakers introduce you to partners. Master Matchmakers lists a 450 USD private registry and premium matchmaking from 3,500 to 35,000 USD. Matchmakers in the City lists consultations at 200 USD and priority membership from 20,000 USD. LUMA states that fees typically range from 0 to 250,000 USD. Select Date Society states that memberships begin around 100,000 USD.

Prices change. The figures above are what each site showed on the day we read it. Scope also differs. One price may buy a course, another a long search. Check the provider page for the current price and what it includes.

Who they work with varies. Some US coaches list men only. One lists women only. Matchmaker listings do not state a group. Each listing shows the groups the business names on its own site.

Format. Six of the eight US listings offer video calls. Matchmakers in the City and Select Date Society list in-person service only. Craft of Charisma lists in-person, video and group formats.

Training and rules. A listing has a field for certifications. It stays blank unless the business states one on its own site. A blank field tells you nothing about training, so ask the business. This site holds no source on legal rules for coaching or matchmaking. Ask a qualified professional if you have a question about contracts or consumer rights.

What a listing is. This site is an independent directory. A listing is a record of what a business publishes. It is not a recommendation or an endorsement. No coach or matchmaker can promise you a relationship, and this site does not either.

Frequently asked questions

How much do coaches and matchmakers in the United States charge?

Each business sets its own price and publishes it on its own site. US listings here run from a 17 USD course to a 1 million USD program. Check the provider page for the current price.

Does this site tell me about licensing rules?

No. This site holds no source on rules for dating coaches or matchmakers, so it does not say. Ask the business about its training. Ask a qualified professional about rules or contracts.

Can I work with a coach in a different state?

Six of the eight US listings offer video calls, so location may matter less. Check with the business before you book.
